

HEADTEACHER Candidate Pack

Letter from our Chair

Dear Applicant,

Thank you for your interest in the position of Headteacher at Loxford School. Our current Headteacher is Mrs Anita Johnson, OBE, who is continuing her association with the Trust but as the full time CEO. During her tenure as Headteacher of Loxford Mrs Johnson excelled in developing the school in many ways. We are now looking to appoint an inspiring and ambitious new Headteacher who will confidently take the school forward to its next successful chapter. Future success will depend on continuing efforts to improve.

Loxford School is an all-through, vibrant and diverse school which seeks to meet both the needs and the aspirations of our local community. At Loxford we expect all children to achieve, both academically and in their broader educational, personal and social development.

We pride ourselves on our inclusive and child-centred education which strives to make a significant, positive difference to the lives of our children and their families. We aim for each child to be an enthusiastic learner guided to build a foundation from which they develop confidence and independence, able to thrive and succeed into young adulthood and beyond. We believe that every child can succeed.

The successful candidate will develop strong working relationships with Mrs Johnson and the Local Academy Committee and Trust Board, with peer support from the Headteachers of the other Trust schools and Trust-wide specialist staff, building on our existing successes. They will form effective relationships with the pupils, their parents and carers, the staff, local authority, external agencies and the wider community. The successful candidate will also enjoy the support of, and lead, a strong and dynamic leadership team spanning all five key stages, who are highly committed to meeting the needs of every pupil in the school. This is an exciting opportunity to lead an already successful school to further success.

The closing date for applications is 9.00am 7th March and candidates shortlisted for this post will be contacted for interview on 14th March. If you would like to experience Loxford at first hand, you are warmly invited to arrange a suitable time, by contacting Michael Watson on 077 4227 4680 or 020 8058 0579 or email: michael.watson@candidateiskey.co.uk You will be welcomed and escorted around the school by members of the HR team and Y13 students, subject to their availability.

We hope that you will find the accompanying Candidate Brochure and the information that it contains useful and of interest.

If you share our vision and our commitment to making it a reality, we will be delighted to receive your application and to learn what you would be able to offer our school community.

Yours sincerely,

David A Low
Chair, Loxford School Trust

About Loxford School

Loxford believes that everyone can succeed regardless of their prior backgrounds, and that it will provide the widest opportunities through its extensive and broad curriculum to enable children to have the qualifications to access university if they wish.

As an all-through school, we pride ourselves on ensuring that students of all academic abilities thrive and flourish.

Our results are a testimony to the hard work and motivation of our children and staff, along with the support of parents and governors. Whilst academic achievement will always be at the heart of what we do, we will continue to take a holistic view of education, ensuring our students are able to make an active and positive contribution to society and to enjoy life to the full.

Everything we do at Loxford School is centred on ensuring that each individual student is educated and supported to succeed in the world today – as an individual, as a partner, as a member of a team and as a citizen.

Loxford School follows the National Curriculum and has already initiated changes in preparedness for responding to the Curriculum and Assessment Review changes that are coming. Loxford has already initiated the necessary changes to meet the government's 2026 ambition for "wrap around care".

About Loxford School

“The school provides high-quality subject-specific training for staff. The calendar for this is well planned to give staff the time they need to embed their learning”

Our School

“Loxford is about achieving”

“We prepare children for an ever-changing world”

Everything we do at Loxford School is centred on ensuring that each individual student is educated and supported to succeed in the world today – as an individual, as a partner, as a member of a team and as a citizen.

In order for students to fulfil their potential at Loxford School, they need to feel secure, safe, supported and well-motivated. To achieve this, Loxford School has a number of important expectations, rules and procedures which are encompassed in Mutual Respect and Self-Discipline principles.

Early Years

“We ignite children’s curiosity”

We have a thriving nursery where children play and learn in a safe and engaging environment. Children are taught to develop their social skills and play happily with each other. Bringing with them a wide range of personal experiences from their home lives, they are enabled to meet the Early Learning Goals, through the current Early Years Framework, as a secure foundation for their next phases of school and beyond.

Primary

“Every child is valued”

In the Primary Phase, children are motivated and inspired through a curriculum which is based on learning challenges, planned in response to the needs and interests of individuals. With the right balance of challenge and support, children are actively involved in a range of memorable learning experiences which promote creativity, independence and enjoyment.

Secondary

“Loxford is richly equipped”

“We use the latest teaching techniques”

Our students experience rich and varied lessons supported by the latest teaching techniques and equipment. Each subject has a highly qualified specialist team of teachers, teaching in rooms which have been equipped for their subject.

For students aged 13-16, the school offers a full range of GCSE courses, as well as BTEC courses to suit every taste and aptitude. In the Sixth Form, students can progress on to take a wide range of A Level and Vocational A Level courses.

Sixth Form

“Our sixth form is outstanding”

Loxford School comprises a successful and vibrant Sixth Form where students routinely achieve excellent grades and progress onto both higher education including apprenticeships, leading to successful careers. The range of courses on offer has been carefully selected in order to meet the needs of a wide range of students and the aspirations of our community.

Facilities

“We have state-of-the-art facilities”

Our spacious, well-lit buildings offer high-quality ‘state-of-the-art’ facilities for both vocational and academic learning. Both the Primary and Secondary phase buildings create a modern learning environment, able to accommodate over 3,000 students.

The design of the building aims to reflect the school’s successful ethos, and its pledge to ensure that every student is given the opportunity to achieve their potential whether their talents lie in the arts, literature, sport, science, technologies and the core subjects.

Partnerships

At Loxford we recognise the need to work collaboratively with other schools and organisations. We are stronger when we work in partnership, whether it be acting as a critical friend or gaining advice from other outstanding schools. Currently, we are working with a number of partner organisations, including The British Council – International School Status, SSAT, Leading Edge Partnership Programme, University of Westminster – Westminster Distinctiveness Award, and Trees for Cities.

About Loxford School Trust

The Loxford School Trust is an Academy Trust developed from Loxford School of Science and Technology. The Trust aspires to create a family of Primary and Secondary Academies that will develop strong reputations for developing outstanding education for all pupils.

At Loxford School Trust we:

- aim to prepare young people for an ever-changing world that values self-confident, well-educated and enterprising people. In the Trust we believe that students come first and that every child can find a route to happiness, prosperity and success
- enable staff to work closely together to deliver the best education possible for the students who attend our academies
- focus on the quality of teaching and learning whilst using funding in innovative ways because of the greater freedoms and independence that Academies are granted. The Trust has been designed specifically to bring about transformation in areas of deprivation and low standards. It has proved that whatever the background of a child, children can succeed
- continue to seek new challenges and opportunities to help children fulfil their potential, both academically and socially, so that they leave us with the widest range of choices in a challenging society.

The Loxford School Trust consists of seven schools. Loxford School is an All-Through School. Abbs Cross Academy & Arts College, Gaynes School, Tabor Academy, The Warren School and Cecil Jones Academy are Secondary Schools, and Aldborough is a Primary School.

The schools within the Trust are successful and well managed. The Trust works well with schools who move into special measures ensuring that within a 2-year period that they move to at least good. Schools that have been inspected by OFSTED since they joined the Trust are now either good or outstanding and have improved their exams results.

We are striving to be an outstanding Trust, delivering a high-quality education for each one of our students. Our vision is to improve educational standards and increase aspirations for all by demanding excellence in all we do within our family of schools.

Governance and Scheme of Delegation

The Trustees have been selected to represent the interests of local communities and act as guardians of the educational aims of the Trust. The Trust also includes a board of Directors who hold the CEO and each academy committee to account.

Our Trust has a clear scheme of delegation that sets out the responsibilities of the various levels of governance (members, trustees, Local Academy Committees). Governors at all levels are clear about their responsibilities and have access to high quality information and training.

Central Team

We also have a highly competent and professional central team that allows our Board of Trustees to focus on key strategic issues. A number of very successful appointments have provided the Trust with increased capacity as we move forwards.
